

THE MONDAY

REPORT

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE
JUNIOR COLLEGE DIVISION
202 SKYLAND BOULEVARD
TUSCALOOSA, ALABAMA 35405
JANUARY 11, 1982

Lucy Kubiszyn, editor

SHELTON STATE COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Record Series: Campus Newspaper

File: EG 1-12-5

Date: 9-28-75

Acting II, 11-14 years, Monday & Wednesday, 4-4:45 p.m.; Acting III, 15-18 years, Tuesday & Thursday, 4-4:45 p.m.

APPLICATIONS NOW AVAILABLE FOR MISS SHELTON STATE PAGEANT

Applications for the Miss Shelton State Pageant scheduled to be held on Saturday, February 13, are now available and may be picked up from Lucy Kubiszyn, Judy Barker, Sandra Day or Tom Umphrey.

The winner of the local Pageant will represent the college at the Miss Alabama Pageant in Birmingham this summer. Miss Alabama will be the representative for the state in the Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City, New Jersey.

ALL ENTRIES MUST BE RETURNED TO JUDY BARKER OR SANDRA DAY BY 4 P.M. ON MONDAY, JANUARY 18.

The Miss Shelton State Pageant is open to any student at Shelton State between the ages of 18 - 25 years of age. Judging will be based on beauty, poise, interview and talent. Winners will receive scholarships, money and prizes.

Last year's winner, Rosalind Connor, is now a model for Ebony magazine and is currently touring the country as a direct result of this competition.

DON'T FORGET THE DEADLINE. ENTRIES MUST BE TURNED IN NO LATER THAN JANUARY 18.

CREATIVE DRAMATICS FOR YOUNG PEOPLE NOW OFFERED AT SHELTON STATE

For the first time Shelton State Junior college is offering courses in creative dramatics for young people in an effort to introduce local youths to the educational value of Theatre Arts.

The courses are under the direction of Susan Carol Brown (MA, University of Alabama) and began January 6 and continue through March 2. Fee for the course will be $50 per child.

The classes will be taught on three levels: Acting I, 7-10 years, Monday & Wednesday, 3:15-4 p.m.

BELLE OF AMHERST COMES TO TUSCALOOSA

"The Belle of Amherst," a play based on the life of Emily Dickinson, will be presented at the Bama Theater on Friday, January 29, at 8 p.m.

The production is being brought to Tuscaloosa by Shelton State Junior College, radio station WUOA, and the Punch and Judy Players.

"The Belle of Amherst" will be presented as part of Phi Theta Kappa (National Junior College Honorary) state convention which is being held in Tuscaloosa that week-end.

SHELTON STATE DRAMA DEPARTMENT SCHEDULES FIRST PRODUCTION

The drama department at Shelton State Junior College under the direction of Paul Looney will present their first production, "Fantastiks," on Friday and Saturday, January 22 and 23, at 8 p.m. in the junior college auditorium.

The "Fantastiks" is a nine-character musical by Tom Jones and Harry Schmidt which deals with the problems associated with growing up.

SHELTON STATE HOSTS PHI THETA KAPPA STATE CONVENTION

Phi Theta Kappa, national junior college honorary, will hold their state convention at Shelton State this year. As president of the group, the Shelton State chapter plays host as they convene in Tuscaloosa on Friday and Saturday, January 29 and 30.

A MATH TOURNAMENT DESIGNED FOR AREA HIGH SCHOOL TEAMS WILL BE HELD AT SHELTON STATE, SATURDAY, MARCH 27.

MEMORY PAINTINGS OF AN ALABAMA FARM: JESSIE RHOADS

Memory Paintings of An Alabama Farm: Jessie Rhoads, an exhibit of 35 paintings by Jessie Dubose Rhoads, will open in the library at Shelton State Junior College on January 11 and will continue through February 5.

These paintings depict the recollection of the youth of Jessie Rhoads in rural south Alabama and give long overdue recognition to one of the finest Southern folk painters.

This exhibit, one of three scheduled to appear at Shelton State this year, is under the auspices of Southern Arts Federation, of which the Alabama State Council on Arts and Humanities is a member and which is funded in part by the National Endowment for the Arts.

Organized by Fred Fussel, Museum Curator, Columbus Museum of Arts and Sciences, the exhibit is open to the public, Monday - Thursday, 8 a.m. - 10 p.m., and Friday, 8 a.m. - 4 p.m.

JANUARY CALENDAR

- January 18: Deadline for entering the Miss Shelton State Pageant.
- January 19: Preservation Hall Jazz Band, Stars Fell on the Bama Series, Bama Theater.
- January 22-23: The "Fantastiks," Shelton State auditorium.
- January 27: Shelton State Alumni Association, junior college auditorium, 7:30 p.m.
- January 29-30: Phi Theta Kappa state convention.
- January 29: "The Belle of Amherst," Bama Theater.

ART COURSE OFFERED

* ATTENTION! Special Education, Early Childhood Education, Elementary education, Art Education majors: Those who need the required course in Art (AT231 Art for Teachers) should sign the paper on the door of room 37. This information will help in scheduling the courses for Spring quarter.

UNIVERSITY STUDENT TO PRESENT PIANO RECITAL

* Robin Gilliland will present her senior piano recital in the music room at Shelton State on Wednesday, January 13, from 12:45 - 1:15 p.m.

A student of Ms. Nancy Wright, Mrs. Gilliland is a senior piano major at the University of Alabama.

The program is open to the public.

SCHEDULE FOR ENGLISH PROFICIENCY TEST GIVEN

* The English Language Proficiency Test required by the Alabama Department of Education for all Education majors will be given on the following dates:

January 20, 1982
April 21, 1982
July 21, 1982
October 20, 1982

The time for the test is approximately three and one-half hours and the fee is $26.

Materials for registration may be picked up at the Office of Records and Testing, Rose Administration, University of Alabama campus. The location of the testing will be included in the registration.

AROUND SHELTON'S CAMPUS

* Congratulations to Susan R. Poole and Brenda Fowler; both have been accepted into the Respiratory Therapy Program at RTI for the Spring quarter. .... Shelton student Victor Harris is now a salesman for Carmichael Chrysler. Victor, who formerly was employed by Teleprompter TV, invites all his friends in need of a new or used car to come see him. .... Rosalind Connor, Miss Shelton State 1981, will be at the Birmingham Civic Center, Sunday, January 17, at 5 p.m., for a style show presented by Ebony fashions. Rosalind, who is currently touring the United States for Ebony magazine, would love to see all her old friends. Tickets for the style show are $13.50. Anyone interested in going should contact Bessie German .... DON'T FORGET TO PICK UP YOUR APPLICATION FOR THE MISS SHELTON STATE PAGEANT .... By the way, anyone having news for the MONDAY REPORT should put the copy in the box on my desk. DEADLINE IS ALWAYS THURSDAY NOON.